Darryl Ross graduated from University of Manitoba in 1995 and has worked in private practice physiotherapy in Brandon since that time. He started Dynamic Physiotherapy in 2005 as a sole practitioner and has built a multidisciplinary clinic that is presently home to 17 clinicians.

At present he maintains his clinical practice 2 days a week treating vestibular patients and spends the rest of his work life as clinic director.

Darryl has board experience as an acting director for Prairie Flour Mills in Elie Mb, since 2018, and he is in his second year acting as board chairman.

Darryl competed in triathlons for 10 years and 20 lbs ago, and now spends much of his free time on the golf course and renovating and developing his cabin property at Clear Lake.
